

Quality Policy

MK Pumps and Motors Ltd is committed to understanding the need and expectations of our customers and satisfying these needs with appropriate cost effective solutions.

This will be achieved through the active participation of all employees in the implementation, maintenance and improvement of quality management system, which complies with recognised quality system standards and meets statutory requirements.

A key part of the quality management system is defined quality objectives to identify and improve customer satisfaction.